Join the Fairfield Museum and History Center in Commemorating the 250th Anniversary of the Declaration of Independence!

In 2026, one of America's most important founding documents—the Declaration of Independence—will be turning 250 years old. To commemorate this once-in-a-generation event, Fairfield Museum is leading a partnership of more than two dozen cultural organizations to present a wide and diverse array of engaging public programs, fascinating exhibitions, and lively community events.

We invite your business to be a vital part of this unique celebration by becoming a sponsor of the Fairfield Museum's commemoration. Business sponsors enjoy a long list of benefits depending on their level of support, including:

- On-site banner and video signage at the Fairfield Museum, visited by more than 35,000 people.
- Promotions through the Museum's weekly e-newsletter seen by more than 10,500 people throughout southwestern Connecticut
- Promotions through the Museum's social media channels, including Facebook (6,750 subscribers) and Instagram (3,350 subscribers).
- Opportunities for direct mail, printed media, and billboard advertising.
- Opportunities for on-site promotional events for your clients at the Fairfield Museum.

Please take a moment to review the list of exciting exhibitions, events, and programs below and their sponsorship levels. The 250th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence will be a rare, high-profile opportunity for you to reach new customers and to align your business with this extraordinary national event. The Fairfield Museum would like to work with you to create a custom partnership that best meets your promotional and community engagement needs. Please contact Fairfield Museum Executive Director Michael Jehle, (203) 259-1598 or mjehle@fairfieldhs.org to learn more.

Exhibition Sponsorships:

Exhibition sponsors are prominently featured on signage and video monitors seen by all visitors to the Fairfield Museum, and they receive highly-visible promotions through Fairfield Museum's direct mail, email, and social media channels for the run of the exhibition. Title Sponsors receive the highest level of promotion and a special exhibit preview reception provided for their clients or employees.

1) Fairfield's Tavern Traditions and the Birth of Democracy (November, 2025 – May, 2026)

A fascinating look at how local taverns played a key role in helping nurture democratic ideas in the years after the Declaration of Independence. Fairfield's taverns hosted visits from George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, and Abigail Adams, and were centers of heated political discourse.
